THE UNRIVALED

ST. LOUIS BEER

Will be served ON DRAUGHT at the

Hawaiian Hotel.

To meet the times and competition, it will be furnished at 12 1/2 cts. Per Glass

We quote from letter of the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Association, dated August 8th:

"Your honorable firm having represented us for so many years we believe it useless to call your attention to the merits of our article, but we should like to repeat again and call your attention to the fact that ours is THE ONLY PURE BARLEY MALT BEER MANUFACTURED, and corn cerealine and other adulterants as well as acids, for the preservation of beer, are unknown in our establishment. With the above you may go before the public in our name."

No encomium of ours can add to the high reputation of Anheuser Beer. Its introduction in any and every market makes it an immediate favorite. It stands without a peer, without a rival, without even a competitor. It received the highest awards at the Columbian Exposition. The reduction of the draught Beer to the prevailing price of 12 1/2 CENTS PER GLASS, places it within the reach of all, and he is a wise man who gets the best quality for the least money.

Health and Strength RESTORED

BY THE USE OF
Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Mrs. M. A. Cumming, of Yarraville, Victoria, Australia, Says:

"About a year ago, I had a severe attack of influenza, which left me very weak, without energy, appetite, or interest in life. Obtaining little or no relief from doctors, or from the many remedies recommended to me, I finally tried Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and from that time began to gain health and strength.
I continued the treatment until fully recovered, and now have very great pleasure in telling my friends of the merits of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and the happy results of its use. I consider it the best blood-purifier known."

SOME CLEVER ANSWERS

TO ABSURD QUESTIONS PROPOUNDED BY EXAMINERS.

How a Candidate for the Position of Porter in a Boston Library Failed to Get the Job.

A competitive examination of applicants for the positions of porter and errand boy in the Boston Public Library was held recently. One of the candidates for porter shocked the examiners by his display of frivolity in evading questions which he could not answer. He did not get the position. The paper as printed is as follows:

Q. Describe briefly the difference, as recorded in history, between a Pilgrim and a Puritan?
A. One was a centerboard and the other a flukeel.

Q. Through what States does the Mississippi river pass?
A. Its usual state, mud and water.

Q. Where are Louisville, Detroit, Caracas, Sierra Leone, Cyprus, Stockholm, Budapest, Berne, the Orinoco river?
A. The exact locations of the e places, as indicated in present maps, have been seriously questioned, and I cannot undertake to settle the dispute without further inquiry. The Orinoco river passes in a not altogether straight course through the Orinoco valley.

Q. Where is Chicago?
A. I don't know. I am a New Yorker.

Q. Where is Cleveland?
A. He won't tell.

Q. Describe a feasible course for the circumnavigation of the globe, mentioning all bodies of water which would be passed through.
A. In a balloon. No waters would be passed through.

Q. What was the cause of the War of 1812 and of the Mexican War?
A. Love for fighting, with excuses.

Q. Describe two famous naval battles of any age.
A. The ships which were to contend with each other approached and an engagement ensued in which one side got the worst of it. The fight then stopped. This describes all naval battles and of any age.

Q. What was the French Revolution? Give dates, and tell in a few words what causes produced it.
A. The French Revolution was an uprising among the French people. I cannot "give dates," because this revolution only occurred once. It was caused by the desire to kill those whose faults were different.

Q. How many the races of mankind be chiefly divided?
A. Losers and winners.

Q. Is there any distinction ethnically between the Chinese and Japanese? If so, what?
A. Yes. The Japanese can fight.

Q. What is (1) a vade mecum, (2) a concordance, (3) a digest?
A. If you swallow No. 2 you will have No. 1 for want of No. 3.
Q. What do you understand by the phrase "blank verse"?
A. General weariness.

by an "oration"?
A. A speech over the dead body of Caesar.

Q. Of what persons are the following pseudonyms: Mark Twain, George Eliot, Currier Bell, Jean Paul?
A. Their real names
don't count.

Q. Why are these pseudonyms used?
A. To create mystery—for advertisement.

Q. What is the difference between a university and a college?
A. It is merely one of degree.

Q. What is secondary education?
A. Taking things on hearsay.

Q. What do you understand by university extension?
A. The Yale boat race in England.

by the word "fetich"?
A. A yellow dog for luck.

Q. Tell what you know of the origin of penny postage, the electric telegraph, the submarine cable, the discovery of anaesthe-tics.
A. I know nothing, and I claim full marks for this, as entirely complying with the direction.

Q.—Why is piracy now practically extinct? A.—Through change of name. Except in the book business it is now called "diplomacy," "trusteeship," etc.

Q.—What, in a few words, are transcendentalism, epicureanism and utilitarianism? A.—The first means thinking on the roof while living in the basement; the second means living high on $7.50 a week; the third is the study of how to do so.

Q.—Name in chronological order the various peoples which have inhabited England. A.—England has been inhabited by English only. Various foreign people arrived, but immediately became English.

Q.—What does the present British empire include? A.—Everything it could grab, except the United States, Venezuela, Ireland and some of the surrounding planets.—Baltimore Sun.

JUDICIARY JOINTINGS.

Offer to Surrender a Leasehold on Payment of Its Value.

Sarah J. Emmes, Margaret Ann Robertson and Eliza Emily Cassidy by their attorneys, Thurston & Stanley, have made answer for themselves to the suit of James A. King, Minister of the Interior, for condemnation of land against C. R. Bishop and others. They say the value of their leasehold expiring in 1902 is $3000, and on payment of that amount to them they will surrender to the Minister of the Interior all their right, title and claim to the leasehold.

Judge Carter has granted authority to Cecil Brown, trustee of the Haystack estate, to invest $4000 in O. R. & L. Co.'s bonds.
Thurston for plaintiff; Humphreys for defendant.

Judge Carter is hearing argument in the case of Mrs. Kaha-nanui vs. Jas. Ashford this afternoon.

Judge Perry is hearing a petition to determine the heirs of Kahaleikakai. Castle for petitioner; Magoon for respondents.

Mr. Robinson's Proposition.

A number of young men interested in football were at the Y. M. C. A. last night to listen to a proposition from G. H. Robinson of San Francisco. Briefly stated, that gentleman wants to take a team of twenty players from the islands to the Coast, to play three games in San Francisco and one in Los Angeles, during the Christmas holidays. Mr.
Robinson thought the San Francisco clubs would be willing to donate 60 per cent of the gate receipts to the Honolulu team.
Nothing definite was decided on at the meeting.

Card of Thanks.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lyle, with their family, desire to return their heartfelt thanks to the many friends who proffered their sympathy for the loss of their beloved daughter Deborah, and who gave so many beautiful floral tokens of esteem for the departed one, remembering especially the ladies who kindly assisted in the funeral arrangements.

A New Enterprise.

The very latest as regards sal-dery is constantly on hand at Chas. Hammer's new establishment, 229 King street, also the very best repairing done. Telephone 682. P. O. Box 393.

In a case that was tried in the Police Court yesterday, lamentable ignorance of the marriage law of the country was displayed.
One of the couples procured a marriage license from J. H. Boyd while the license for the other couples was got from Mrs. Nakuina. Both couples thought this was all that was needed and went to housekeeping forthwith without the blessing of a clergyman.

A NEWSPAPER CURIOSITY

HOW THE FOURTH OF JULY
WAS CELEBRATED IN 1862.

Extracts from an Old Number of "The Polynesian," Picked Up by Tom Carey This Morning.

Tom Carey, the well-known huckman, picked up an old newspaper in the street this morning and on opening it up found it was a copy of The Polynesian, bearing the date of July 5th, 1862.
He kindly presented it to the BUL-LETIN.

Its date naturally suggested an account of the Fourth of July celebration, which was found on the last page. After describing a horse race, won by John Cummings' gray horse Turk, and a hurdle race over six hurdles, won by a red horse named Jimmy also owned by Mr. Cummings, the account goes on to say:

"There was a party given to, and attended by, a great number of American families and their juveniles, at the residence of D.
C. Waterman, Esq., and another at that of Hon. C. C. Harris, M. P. for Hamakua, both in Nuuanu valley. There was a cheerful gathering in the evening at Mr.
H. A. P. Carter's, on Emma street, where a number of the best singers in Honolulu gave in sweetest tones some of those beautiful American National airs, which in a measure have become the "household words" of freedom.
There were rockets and fireworks from the head of Emma street, coursing the sky in beautiful and aerial flights. There was a grand bonfire on one of the spurs of Punchbowl hill, illuminating the town, the valley and the mountains with a solemn, mysterious light.

There were salutes fired at morning, noon and night; the Government having kindly placed an artillery company at the disposal of a Committee of American citizens.
There were—well, there were General Hilarity, General Rejoicing, General Goodwill and Contentment, and all the other generals which go to make a day pleasant, and to impress the memory of the grand act in human history, which that day especially commemorates, upon the mind of every participant.

The editorial columns of this paper, published more than thirty-six years ago, are filled with criticisms on the Legislature then in session, and the editor handles its subject without gloves, as the following will show:

"While the nation is steadily marching to extinction, and the empty hut and the fallow land tell their mournful tale to the owl and the wild goat, the Representatives, in Legislature assembled, exhaust their energy and display their rhetoric by propitiating horses while humanity is suffering, by making judges dependent on parliamentary caprice, and prostitutes independent of police surveillance. One would have thought that the sanitary condition of the people would have needed no special committee report, no ministerial suggestion, no royal expression of a wish, to have awakened the most serious solicitude of the people's Representatives. Nearly two months have elapsed since the Legislature was convened; many useful and some foolish things have occupied their attention, yet, with the exception of the law in favor of women becoming pregnant outside wedlock, we look in vain for a single measure proposed or a dollar offered to enlarge the means of preserving the Hawaiian race."

Outside of the account of the Fourth of July celebration there is little local news, barring that burglars had broken into the 1st Associate Justice's and Registrar's offices in the courthouse, and suggesting the employment of an

DAVID WILLIAM PUA DEAD

HE EXPIRES SUDDENLY FROM AN UNKNOWN CAUSE.

Was a Member of House of Nobles —Of Committee that Saw Commissioner Blount.

Hon. D. W. Pua, a prominent Hawaiian resident, died very suddenly this morning. His son Samuel was chatting with him in cheerful vein at nine o'clock last night, and the father went to bed apparently in good health at 11 o'clock. Samuel slept under the parental roof, as he had been doing for two weeks past, and at a few minutes past one o'clock was hastily summoned by his mother to his father's bedside. He reached there only in time to see his father breathe for the last time.

David William Pua was born at the island of Nihaui. He was not certain of the date of his birth, but he was more than 60 years of age at death. Immediately after his marriage at Nihaui in 1867, Mr. Pua came to Honolulu and stayed here. He engaged in business, being of a speculative turn, and fairly prospered. Besides his large homestead at Palama he leaves some little other property.

Mr. Pua was a strong Nationalist in politics. In the election of 1884, under the Gibson regime, he unsuccessfully stood for a seat in the Legislature. The constitution of 1887 having changed the House of Nobles from a life to an elective tenure, Mr. Pua was elected for the four-year term as a Noble for Oahu on the National Reform ticket in 1890, and sat in the Legislatures of that year and 1892. His son Samuel K. was a member of the House of Representatives the latter year. Mr.
Pua was one of the committee of native Hawaiians who presented the case of the monarchy to United States Commissioner Blount in 1893.

The lamented gentleman was of a stalwart physique and seemed to have many years of life before him. Yet his aged father, whom he filially maintained under his roof, survives him besides his wife, two sons, two daughters and many grandchildren. William K. Pua is the second son and the daughters are Mrs. Vivian Hayes and Mrs. J. H. Nye.

The funeral takes place from the Catholic Cathedral at 4 o'clock this afternoon. Ed. A. Williams is the undertaker in charge.

POLICE COURT MATTERS.

Chinese Vagrant Gets Three Months—Other Offenders Sentenced.

In Judge de la Vergne's court this morning the liquor charges against Mina Cremmer and Ludvicko were put off until the 24th, and a number of Japanese licenses cases to the 16th.

Pipi, who drives a bus and was arrested for fast driving, pleaded not guilty and his case was set for trial on the 14th.

In the adultery case of F.
Meyers and Louisa Brown, mentioned in yesterday's report, the Court decided that Meyers was guilty and sentenced him to two months on the reef. The woman was fined $15. J. L. Kaulakou, attorney for Meyers, will take an appeal to the higher court.

Ah Fat was given thirty days on a plea of guilty of having opium in possession, and Ah Leong, an old offender, was sent over for ninety days.

There is coffee and there is coffee, but there is no coffee that gives better satisfaction than what the Palama Grocery is selling.
But that we are careful to keep the cover on it, its fragrance could be detected half way round the island, more or less. Just give it a trial, and you will use no other.
